PRECINCT CONVENTIONS

SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

March 20, 2010

Held on the Third Saturday after the Primary Election Day

Texas Election Code (Section 174.063)

SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

- The only requirement to be elected as a Delegate or Alternate to the County/Senatorial District Convention is to have voted in the Republican Primary election.
- It is not a requirement to attend the Precinct Convention in order to be elected to the next higher level.

(Longtime Republicans often perform tasks for the party or candidates during Election Day, which prevents them from being able to attend. However, their name must be included in the listing of Delegates and Alternates elected in their respective Precinct Convention.)

- Attending the Precinct Convention will definitely increase the likelihood of being one of those elected.

SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION

- The County Convention is the next step up the ladder of the party leadership and policy development.
 - When a county includes 2 or more Senate Districts, Senatorial District Conventions must be held.
- County / Senatorial District Convention business is the same as at the precinct convention:
 - Elect Permanent Chair of the Convention
 - Elect Delegates and Alternates
 - Adopt Resolutions for the State Convention's consideration

The informality of the small precinct convention is replaced by a more formal agenda and parliamentary rules necessary for an orderly meeting.
